

Kansas Day 2012

Burlingame Schuyler Museum & Community Center
117 S. Dacotah St., Burlingame

Friday, January 27th & Saturday, January 28th 9 am to 4 pm

Experience pioneer kids' games such as marbles, hopscotch, spool and yarn games

Abe Lincoln presenter-Friday only

View old time toys and yarn dolls

Hands-on corn shelling exhibit

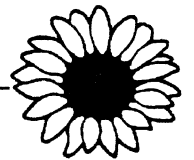

All permanent displays including arrowhead collection and military memorabilia will be open for viewing

Saturday Only

“Ham & Beans” Lunch - 11:30 am to 1:30 pm

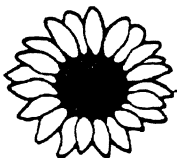

Ham & Beans or Vegetable Soup, Corn Bread, Relishes, Dessert

$6 per person / Children 5 & under $3

Kansas & the Civil War in American History” - 2 pm

Kansas Humanities Council presenter Brian Craig Miller explores Kansas and the Civil War.

Sponsored by the Burlingame Historical Preservation Society www.burlingamemuseum.org